The Great Invocation: Correspondences & Interpretations using Noble Sciences Sacred Synthesis

By Eleanor Haspel Portner, Ph.D.

Introduction

The Great Invocation distributed by the Lucis Trust is based on Alice Bailey's channeled work from the Tibetan. Numerous esoteric traditions consider it to be one of the most powerfully aligning attunement prayers available. When understood and dissected using Noble Sciences Sacred Synthesis, the Great Invocation shows the layers of consciousness upon which this invocation works as they operate in the unified field of consciousness.

Read over the entire Invocation and then proceed to read the commentary. Focus your mind as you visualize the images so richly described and meditate on them.

The Great Invocation

*From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into the minds of men.
May Light descend on Earth.*

*From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into the hearts of men.
May Christ return to Earth.*

*From the centre where the Will of God is known
Let purpose guide the little wills of men -
The purpose which the Masters know and serve.*

*From the centre which we call the race of men
May the Plan of Love and Light work out.
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.*

*May Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.
(The Tibetan)*

Commentary

The Great Invocation begins:

From the point of Light within the Mind of God

Let light stream forth into the minds of men.

May Light descend on Earth.

In this segment of the Great Invocation you can see parallels to the Field of Transcendence (The Light Field) at all layers of your awareness. In the Field of Transcendence, you gain more understanding of the symbolic, archetypal aspects of your life. It is part of human nature to feel connected to the vastness of the universe. You seek to connect with collective awareness, i.e., your unified field of life consciousness, or creative intelligence. It is also natural to seek understanding that sheds “light” on matters that at first you don’t fully understand.

Images perceived in your dream world provide experiences that you continually attempt to integrate and synthesize in daily life. This desire to understand dreams exists in most people. When you sleep you function differently than when awake. In the world of sleep, the Field of Transcendence (the Light Field), has five Hexagrams/Gates that operate actively. All of the Hexagrams/Gates in this field in the sleep world involve transformation through perception and cognition. It registers conceptual understanding of the collective whole in ways that connect you to all life.

From the point of Love within the Heart of God

Let love stream forth into the hearts of men.

May Christ return to Earth.

In this segment of the Great Invocation you can see parallels to the Field of Integration/Unification (The Earth Plane) through all layers of your awareness. Through the Field of Integration/Unification you straddle the Field of Transcendence (the Light Field) and The Sleep Field of Existence (The Realm of Survival). When integrated these dimensions of consciousness allow you to manifest through language to live a healthy life with understanding in the third dimensional (earth) plane of existence. It is in this unified field that the template for waking life in third dimensional reality comes to life. As a human, it is through the love vibration that true synthesis and integration of all fields of existence find their right expression.

From the centre where the Will of God is known

Let purpose guide the little wills of men -

The purpose which the Masters know and serve.

In this segment of the Great Invocation you can see parallels to the Field of Integration/Unification (The Earth Plane) through all layers of your awareness. When you dream, you tap into the deepest archetypal collective consciousness of the universe through this Unified Integrated Field of Consciousness. This is the spiritual component of your awareness. It integrates the organic whole of consciousness that enters into your cells and affects them. Images and directives manifest through your body’s consciousness. You bring it into awareness (light) through your thought and understanding of the transcendent Self. As above, so below. Unification occurs through neurological filters through which your personality interprets the Reality of Life challenges. When you follow these images in true form and manifestation, you serve the larger collective whole in its highest vibration. You transcend your personality for a “higher purpose” in all areas of your life in an integrated balanced way. All worlds are in alignment.

*From the centre which we call the race of men
May the Plan of Love and Light work out.
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.*

In this segment of the Great Invocation you can see parallels to the Field of Existence (Realm of Survival) through all layers of your awareness. The Synthesizing aspect of Rapid Eye Movement (REM) or dream state of sleep connects you with the health and survival needs of the wider collective. In this state of consciousness you experience the integrative aspect of our consciousness as it comes into form through your cells and their drive for life and health. It is in the REM state of consciousness you experience the different aspects of your self. You bring it into human associative form; there you make sense of it in order to carry it into your life with meaning. How you assign that meaning and the vibration to what you bring to light and through love in a broader collective world charts the course of the future of your own life as well as the wider collective. How you live and what you do affects others.

May Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.

This statement of the Great Invocation directs you to understand that through your individual unique wholeness within the unified field of consciousness that the highest energetic aspects of the organic whole you know as Earth manifests understanding and survival in biological form. Through your consciousness you bring unity to existence of Earth and of all life.
